Helen & Helen sent home to-day feeli

April 10, 1919.
Thursday:—

Precious Hubby dear:—

Got rec'd your Tuesday letter and am very happy that you are now feeling better. Don't forget, now after to eat regularly, and take the best of care of yourself, otherwise you will soon have trouble with your tummy again.

I had meant to tell you to go ahead with your assault case, and to get as much out of it as you can. Am sorry that you didn't send the divorce case, but "you shouldn't worry". We hope you send something out of that ~~Cola~~ Cola case.

Have just returned from the yard. Henry & Helen are getting along nicely. They could go home to-day but the weather is rather raw, & I think it wisest to leave them here until to-morrow. Fanny is coming down to see them this afternoon, and if the weather clears up, they may go home with her. Both of them had their tonsils & adenoids removed. I was up in the yard early this morning, and brought ice cream for the bunch of them. Three were operated upon in the children's ward. The poor kiddies, I sure did feel sorry for them. There is a dear little baby boy there, he is about 18 months old & I never saw such a dear, good baby. He was operated on both mastoids. The whole hospital is crazy about "Billy". He is so good — never cries, — and so lovable. I must always go over to see Billy when I take a p[illegible] there.

[illegible] regularly, and take the best of care of yourself, otherwise you will soon have trouble with your throat again. I hate to feel you to go ahead with your assault case, and to get as much out of it as you can. Am sorry that you didn't land the divorce case, but "you shouldn't worry". We hope you land something out of that ~~Cola~~ Cola case.

No doubt it is the spring weather coming on that makes me so tired, but dear, I sure am all haunted. Clarrie was up to see me last night, and poor thing had to stand in the hall for about ½ hr. waiting for me.

I ran up to the ward, with Rose & Sadie Englander.
Tante Rosie, Uncle J. & Faige came also.

Shall close now praying, with all my heart,
hugs & kiss to the dearest kitty – all the world.

Everlasting
Frances
